
QUALITEE WORKSHOP - DEVELOPING QUALITY ASSURANCE FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY SERVICES

Date: October 10th, 2019

Time: 9:30 to 14:00

Place: Hotel NH Habana. Paseo de la Habana nº 73 (Madrid)

PRESENTATION OF THE CONFERENCE

In addition to "traditional" barriers to the development of the ESCO market, such as lack of knowledge and lack of information, funding problems, lack of support for procurement rules, performance risk, financial crisis and economic downturn, etc., mistrust in the quality of energy efficiency services (EES) still plays an important role. Some of the reasons why energy services markets have not matured in many countries are the lack of ESCOs to ensure the quality of their services, as well as the absence of accreditation and standardisation systems.

This topic will be dealt with in depth, in English, by renowned experts in the sector at the conference, providing attendees with a clearer view of the situation and prospects of the sector.

TARGET AUDIENCE

The conference is aimed at Energy Service Providers and Customers: Consultants, ICT companies, engineering companies, manufacturers, ESCOs, certifiers, etc ... and companies interested in saving energy and improving the sustainability of their organizations.

It is also aimed at financial institutions, public administration and policy makers interested in the sector of energy efficiency and the environment.
